CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

With Ash Wednesday on March 2 we begin the season of Lent. We have 40 days to prepare for the most important day of the liturgical year: Easter. The Church invites us to fasting, prayer and almsgiving. The readings during this season speak about Baptismal renewal and penance. Let us take advantage of this time of grace to ask God to help us in the ways that He sees best. Whatever cross the Lord may allow, let us carry it trusting that God is allowing it for our good.

May you have a Blessed Lent,
Fr. Mark

New St. Malo Stations of the Cross Trail

<https://campstmalo.org/about/stations-of-the-cross/>

Installed in fall of 2021, the new Stations of the Cross Trail climbs the hill behind St. Williams Lodge in the center of property. The trail showcases the artwork of Timothy Schmalz, a Canadian artist and sculptor. The Stations of the Cross are made of cast bronze. The Stations represent a new beginning for Camp St. Malo as well. In 2013, flooding washed away the former JP II trail that once allowed guests to walk in the footsteps of Pope St. John Paul II, who visited Camp St. Malo in 1993.

Parish Bulletins

At least three parishes posted a notice of Feb. 2 World Day of Consecrated Life. Thanks to all of the Parish Liaisons for contacting our 14 parishes with a request to post a notice in their bulletins and/or flocknote.

On May 8, Serra has a similar initiative for World Day of Prayer for Vocations. In April, after Easter, we will contact our parishes to post notices. We have a new web page for it: <https://www.serraclubbouldercounty.org/world-day-of-prayer-for-vocations>. Bulletin editors can just cut and paste both the text and the image, and/or insert the flyer into the bulletin.

Also included are suggested Prayers of the Faithful.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Mar. 4 - general and board meeting; mini-lenten retreat with Fr. Bob Amundsen

Mar. 18 - general meeting; Deacon Steve Vallero

Apr. 1 - general meeting; installation of new officers (tentative)

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Serrans – as the Saint Serra Apostolate of Boulder County carries on the work it has been doing since the early 1990s, please take some time to ponder the following paragraphs from the catechism titled “The Apostolate.”

The Apostolate

863 The whole Church is apostolic, in that she remains, through the successors of St. Peter and the other apostles, in communion of faith and life with her origin: and in that she is "sent out" into the whole world. All members of the Church share in this mission, though in various ways. "The Christian vocation is, of its nature, a vocation to the apostolate as well." Indeed, we call an apostolate "every activity of the Mystical Body" that aims "to spread the Kingdom of Christ over all the earth."

864 "Christ, sent by the Father, is the source of the Church's whole apostolate"; thus the fruitfulness of apostolate for ordained ministers as well as for lay people clearly depends on their vital union with Christ. In keeping with their vocations, the demands of the times and the various gifts of the Holy Spirit, the apostolate assumes the most varied forms. But charity, drawn from the Eucharist above all, is always "as it were, the soul of the whole apostolate."

865 The Church is ultimately one, holy, catholic, and apostolic in her deepest and ultimate identity, because it is in her that "the Kingdom of heaven," the "Reign of God," already exists and will be fulfilled at the end of time. the kingdom has come in the person of Christ and grows mysteriously in the hearts of those incorporated into him, until its full eschatological manifestation. Then all those he has redeemed and made "holy and blameless before him in love," will be gathered together as the one People of God, the "Bride of the Lamb, the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God, having the glory of God. For the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb."

I look forward to hearing how your pondering has given meaning to what has been accomplished in the past and carries on into the future.

Mary Mother of Vocations and Saint Junipero, pray for us!

In Christ,

Peggy
