

Saint Serra Apostolate of Boulder County

January 7, 2022

Dear Parishioner,

I am inviting you to join The Saint Serra Apostolate of Boulder County. We are an organization of Catholic lay men and women who are dedicated to fostering and promoting vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated religious life. Additionally, we strive to grow in holiness ourselves.

Serra is a Vatican approved international, national, and local vocations organization with nine Colorado groups. In Boulder, 55 members perform many vocation-related activities throughout the year. For example, we support our seminarians with prayers, stipends, gifts, appreciation dinners, textbooks, and special occasion greeting cards; we work with the Archdiocese Vocation Office on their vocation projects; we support and encourage local parish vocation activities; we go on retreat and participate in conferences with other Serrans locally and around the world.

I encourage you to accept my invitation to join our apostolate. Normally we meet twice a month on the 1st and 3rd Fridays after the 7am Mass, held in Jubilee Hall, Sacred Heart of Jesus Church in Boulder. These meetings include a complimentary breakfast and program; these meetings will give you the opportunity to visit the apostolate, learn more about our activities, and meet our members.

I would like to invite you to coffee and breakfast at any one of our Friday meetings, so that you may experience how enjoyable and productive our Boulder County Apostolate can be. Please let me know when you might be available and note that we will not meet on 2/18/22 and 4/15/22. You can contact me for more information via our website:
